

WHY FAMOUS PASTRY COOKS USE KC BAKING POWDER

The patrons of our first class hotels and restaurants are exacting—they demand the best. Women go where the pastry and cakes are noted for their excellence. Men are attracted by hot bread and biscuits—when fresh and moist and light.

The pastry cook with a reputation uses K C Baking Powder because he knows that results are certain; every time everything is as good as his best.

Then, too, with K C Baking Powder he can mix the various kinds of batter before the rush of the meal begins and bake as needed so that every order goes to the table fresh and hot, yet the last he bakes are just as good as the first.

The reasons behind these reasons is that K C is really a blend of two baking powders. One commences to give off leavening gas as soon as moistened. The other requires both moisture and heat to make it active. Dough or batter will remain in a partially leavened condition for hours, and when put in the oven, will come up as light as if mixed a moment before.

For cookies, pancakes, doughnuts and the like, which cannot all be baked at once, K C is indispensable. For all baking the double raise makes doubly certain.

Follow the example of the professional cook and your baking will be equal to his.

GOOD MORNING YOUR HONOR

Efforts are being made by Judge Farabaugh to clear up the city court docket as far as possible before he leaves office Jan. 5. On Monday 14 cases were arraigned and on Saturday 18 cases were put on the docket in the morning and court was continued into the afternoon for three other cases.

Roy Wollery pleaded guilty to stealing a watch from the South Bend Watch Co. and paying it, when he was arraigned before Farabaugh.

Monday morning. The case was continued until Tuesday when witnesses will be heard.

To save the man, who has been in their employ, from a grand larceny charge, the watch company officials charged him simply with taking one watch, although Detective Cassidy asserted he has taken several in the same way.

Philip Davis of Dowagiac was fined $1 and costs for being drunk. He makes frequent visits to the city and generally stops at "Hotel Police Station" over night.

Mike Mahoney of Cassopolis, who had not been arrested for nearly six months, was released by Judge Farabaugh on suspended sentence.

THE FIRST DOLLAR I EVER EARNED.

BY MI SIBLEY.

JOSEPH E. NEFF.
"It wouldn't be worth while telling about it," explained Joseph E. Neff, when asked about his first dollar, "because I earned it the same as the others did—planting corn, and worse still I got paid in the shin plasters that all the others have been telling you about."

It did sort of look dubious. "Well, then, if that's the case, maybe you can remember what you spent it for," I suggested, in the hope of getting a new angle on an old story.

"For clothes, I guess, same as the others." "Good! There was a pair of red top boots, or a fur cap, or a woolly overcoat down in the general store that you coveted, wasn't there—something that you determined to have and saved and saved until you had enough to go down there and plunk down a stack of shin plasters and carry away the treasure?"

"No," he replied sadly. "I don't remember a thing, extraordinary about those clothes. They were just boys' clothes—nothing particularly interesting about that, is there?" he added. I regarded him sadly, and he contemplated me with a sort of a hopeless, guess-we're-both-stumped expression. Then I had an idea.

"Oh, now I've got it. The circus! Surely you worked out in the hot sun all one summer to save enough shin plasters to take in Barnum's circus, didn't you?"

"No use," he replied, mournfully. "Our town, Wabash, was too small for Barnum's circus. No circus, no red top boots—nothing spectacular enough to make a good story. Guess we'll have to give it up, won't we?"

I agreed that it looked that way to me. However, Mr. Neff told of other things not connected with his first dollar, which seems to have been an elusive sort of critter. Joseph Neff was the oldest of eight children—his brother Isaac, former principal of the high school, was the third, and the brother in between was bigger than either of them.

"Father was pretty generous with us boys and let us 'claim' this and that. That is, whenever a new colt appeared on the farm one of the three boys would claim it as our own. Some times we all would claim it, but father was arbiter in such cases, and we all accepted the decision of the high court. The next time one of the other boys would get a calf, or a lamb, or two or three pigs. Once there was a steer we all had a share in and when it was finally sold for $67 the money was divided up between us. I remember in particular our old white mare Betty that father sold, and my share of it was $10.

Which rather reflects on Betty's value as a beast of burden, or a family horse, or an ornament, if the proceeds of her sale was evenly divided up among the three boys.

HIS MONEY WON'T BUY EVERYTHING

Health is Much More Valuable Than Wealth—Not Happy Without Health—The Man With Good, Strong, Vigorous Nerves Can Soon Get Wealth

Sordid persons have made the statement that money will buy anything. While this is partly true, and the person with money finds many doors open to him that would be slammed in his face were he poor, yet the most desirable things in the world cannot be bought at any price.

Every person who has been touched by the blighting hand of disease longs for health more than anything else in the world, but money can't buy health. How many have spent fortunes in a vain endeavor to regain their lost health, only to be disappointed again and again, and overtaken by death at last.

Some there are who cannot be cured by any doctor or medicine, but there are also many who have been sick and suffering for years who can be quickly and permanently cured. That many cases that have been treated unsuccessfully by others have received permanent relief and cure at the hands of Dr. Bartlett is being proven every day. Mr. Jos. M. Gnoth of South Bend is one of the many who can testify to the merits of the methods used by Dr. Bartlett. He says:

"South Bend, Ind., Feb. 23, 1913.
"To the Public:
"Some time previous to Jan. 14th, 1911, I had been confined to my home and bed with a violent attack of rheumatism. This condition had progressed until my whole general system was depleted, and I was practically a physical wreck as a result. I had almost despaired of finding anything to relieve my misery, when I was told of a state of health. I had been for some time under treatment with my family physician, but all his efforts to help me seemed to be in vain. At last, hearing of the remarkable results obtained in some cases by the United Doctors, I decided if possible to give my case into their charge.

"I called Dr. Bartlett, the specialist, in charge, to my home, where he gave me a careful and thorough examination. He decided that my case was one which presented many aspects not in common to the ordinary case of rheumatism, and that I would require a special line of medication which should be introduced into the system hypodermically.

"I decided to submit to this line of treatment, and I must say that the results have been little short of marvelous. After three weeks of treatment I was able to call at the office with the aid of crutches, and for the past six weeks I have been able to discard my crutches altogether. The doctor has just told me that I am returning to work this week, and I am once more feeling like my old self.

"I feel that Dr. Bartlett is entitled to great credit for what he has accomplished in my case, and I shall never lose an opportunity to recommend his services to my friends and acquaintances.

"Jos. M. Gnoth, 513 Prairie Ave."

It may be that a trip to Dr. Bartlett's office may mean health and happiness to you, at least it will cost you nothing to be examined and find out.
